

RTA PLANS EXCITING CONFERENCE EXPERIENCE IN SONORAN DESERT LOCALE

By Kristen McIntosh

Prepare To Network, Share Ideas, Learn & Have Fun!

Registration is now open for the 97th Annual RTA Symposium and Technical Conference. Slated for Nov. 2-5 at the beautiful JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort and Spa, the conference promises three days of networking, exhibits, education, the latest purchasing plans by the Class 1 railroads, and more.

To confirm your registration, log on to www.RTA.org and click on the information link at the top of the page. You may also complete the registration form that follows in this issue and email it to ties@RTA.org or fax to (770) 460-5573.

JW MARRIOTT STARR PASS RESORT & SPA

The breathtaking Four-Diamond JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort and Spa is nestled against the saguaro-covered foothills of Tucson Mountain Park. The resort blends seamlessly into its tranquil yet animated mountaintop setting, as natural as the surrounding desert itself.

The resort combines family-friendly recreation with an array of dining options, three nine-hole desert golf courses, entertaining traditions, free Wi-Fi in the lobby and patio, indulgences such as the Hashanah Spa, and more than 81,000 square feet of event space.

Complementing the natural surroundings is an array of multi-level swimming pools, waterslides, lazy rivers, and dancing fountains. With spectacular views, exciting activities for the entire family, and a landscape laced with nature trails throughout for hiking and biking, you'll make memories that will last a lifetime.

DAY ONE – RELAX, PLAY & CONNECT

On Tuesday, Nov. 3, you are invited to enjoy a few pre-conference activities designed to allow you to network, relax and reconnect with your colleagues.

Golfers will head out early for the Annual RTA Golf Tournament at the JW Marriott Starr Pass Golf Club.

The Starr Pass Golf Club is less than a mile from the resort. It is a golf lover's haven. The club is a 27-hole Arnold Palmer Signature Golf facility with a double-loaded driving range, rejuvenating 20,000-square-foot clubhouse and top-quality golf shop. You will enjoy your game while admiring the backdrop of natural mountain ranges.

Not a golfer? There are numerous other activities planned, including an optional private Jeep excursion into the Sonoran Desert. Designed to allow you to experience this landscape first hand, the tour will be led by guides who will show you plants, animals and history that make the Sonoran Desert unique. Along the way, you will learn about the life of the giant saguaro cactus, visit the 1,000-year-old Hohokam Indian occupation site, and see bountiful desert wildlife. The guides will even bring along a critter or two!

Another option is a private "Best of the Barrio Tour." Billed as a "culinary romp through the authentic Mexican cuisine of Tucson," this optional tour will take you aboard a luxury vehicle through Tucson's barrio for an insider's look at each location and their recipe for success. With tastings ranging from handmade pastries/tortillas and more, you will not return to the resort hungry! You will enjoy a combination of cuisine, history and fun as you travel "The Best 23 Miles of Mexican Food." ▶

Once the tours are complete for the day, you may enjoy RTA guest-sponsored hospitality suites and the Annual RTA President’s Reception, including exhibition.

DAY TWO – GET DOWN TO BUSINESS

Wednesday, Nov. 4 begins RTA’s business sessions, and spouses may opt to gather for either a light Continental breakfast or have a boxed breakfast on the way to the Sonoran Desert Museum Tour. Attendees will enjoy a personalized guided tour, have lunch and spend the day at the Sonoran Desert Museum while experiencing some of the wonders of the desert, including the Raptor Free Flight.

RTA will kick off the business portion of the conference with a presentation on the economy and its effect on railroad investment.

A session on procurement, resource and utilization will follow with a presentation from Judd Johnson of the Hardwood Market Report and other hardwood industry experts.

A working luncheon will follow with a keynote address from Dick Maggiore of Innis Maggiore, a top-rated ad agency. A noted speaker on strategic positioning, Dick is not content to simply preside over the agency’s business. He rolls up his sleeves and practices what he preaches. He leads the agency’s team of positioning experts. He coined the term “positionist®” and brings that perspective to benefit the agency’s clients.

Following the second session addressing procurement, resource and utilization, an engineering forum will focus on Class I, regional and short line infrastructure partnerships and what these partnerships mean for RTA members.

Once the business concludes for the day, it’s time to head to RTA’s Annual Banquet and Awards Ceremony, where everyone will enjoy a “Trio of Cultures” culinary experience and entertainment from comedian Rocky Laporte, finalist on the hit show “Last Comic Standing.”

LaPorte, featuring an unmistakable accent and hilarious yet enduring delivery, has performed on “The Tonight Show with Jay Leno” and been featured on his own “Comedy Central Presents” special.

He’s opened for the likes of Louie Anderson, Garry Shandling, Drew Carey, Tim Allen, Hootie and the Blowfish and the Righteous Brothers.

DAY THREE – FINISH WITH A BANG

Thursday, Nov. 5 will feature presentations on the latest research and development projects ranging from borates, handling practices, bridge tie design and more.

Later, following a short networking break, Class 1 purchasing personnel will share with attendees their purchasing plans for the upcoming year.

“This year’s conference promises fantastic Sonoran Desert scenery, great golf, fun guest programs and enlightening sessions for all in attendance,” said Kenny Dailey of Stella-Jones, RTA president. “For anyone in the wood tie industry who needs to understand the latest research and development, purchasing and engineering plans, and more, this event should not be missed. We are looking forward to an outstanding conference designed to inspire networking, sharing of ideas, and education.

Log onto www.RTA.org to reserve your spot today.” ■

The Starr Pass Golf Club legend began more than 120 years ago when Richard Starr crafted a trail through the rugged wilderness of the Tucson Mountains. PGA Tour Commissioner Dean Beaman personally selected the Starr Pass Golf Club site. With the help of renowned golf course designer Bob Cupp and PGA Tour professional Craig Stadler, they created a world-class TPC golf facility. Starr Pass Golf Club hosted the annual Tucson Open between 1987 and 1996. A true desert course, natural elements are used as hazards while showcasing majestic vistas of the Catalina Mountains. Legends such as Arnold Palmer, Phil Mickelson, Payne Stewart and Nancy Lopez have carved their way through this historic golf course.

This combination of cuisine, history, and fun has already proven to be a winner with visitors and locals alike. This tour is a Tucson Weekly "Best of Tucson" Award winner. In 2012, it inspired Visit Tucson's international marketing campaign, "The Best 23 Miles of Mexican Food," which proudly declares that the "best 23 miles of Mexican food" north of the border is the food in Tucson.

The Raptor Free Flight Experience is THE Desert Museum presentation that must not be missed. Only conducted during certain times of the year, you'll have birds of prey fly so close that you can feel the rush of wind as they whiz by. The birds fly completely untethered, without leg straps, in an open desert presentation you must see to believe. Owls, hawks, falcons and the only raptor species that hunts as a family (like wolves) are featured with 2 separate presentations at 10am and 2pm the day of your visit.

RTA BANQUET - TRIO OF CULTURES DESERT SOUTHWEST CULINARY EXPERIENCE

7:00PM - 11PM ON OCTOBER 16TH
Join RTA in celebration of the three incredible cultures that merge in the US Desert Southwest. Railroads and cowboys opened the American West; our Native American history that once flourished in the desert now enjoys a renaissance of understanding and growth; amigos who have immigrated from South of the Border bring a unique cultural flair of food and experiences. Feel free to dress in appropriate apparel from Western wear (denim, boots, hats, bolo ties, bandanas, etc.), to culturally sensitive/appropriate Native American (native-made jewelry, beaded shirts, dresses, moccasins, shawls, etc.) or Mexican attire (colorful cottons, Puebla dresses, mariachi clothing, serapes, sombreros, etc.) and celebrate the melting pot of food and friendship the three cultures now enjoy in Arizona.
